Compromise Evangelist Talks to Club Draft Bill Forecast

By ROBERT T. GRAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — New senatorial criticism of the military draft system awaited a compromise bill to extend the Selective Service program - but backers of the measure forecast Senate passage.

The bill would retain student deferments for college undergraduates and block, for the present at least, President Johnson's plans to set up a lottery system for selecting inductees.

It leaves unchanged the President's authority which he plans to use, to reverse the age order of induction and take registrants in the 19 - year age bracket first.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is among those opposing the bill in its present form.

State Traffic Leaves Seven Persons Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic accidents claimed the lives of seven Arkansans during the weekend period between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday.

Dan Hobb, 79, of St. Charles (Arkansas County), was killed instantly Sunday in a two-car collision at the junction of state highways 1 and 17, about one mile south of St. Charles. Authorities said Hobb was a passenger in a northbound vehicle driven by Robert Clark, 43, of Ethel (Arkansas County), which collided with a westbound vehicle driven by Carolyn West, 21, of St. Charles. Clark and Miss West were not seriously injured.

Five persons died Saturday. Clyde Ray Booth, 25, of West Fork (Washington County) was dead on arrival at a Fayetteville hospital after his car struck the rear of a two-ton truck which was attempting a left turn into a private drive off U. S. 71, about one mile north of West Fork. Both vehicles were northbound. Police said Jesse Harrison, 44, of West Fork, the driver of the truck, was not injured.

miles southeast of Pine Bluff on Grider Field Road. Authorities said the woman was lying on the road.

James McCarter, 21, of Lamar (Logan County), was killed instantly when his car overturned after striking a bridge railing on Arkansas 186, about a half mile south of Altus (Franklin County).

Vernon J. Webb, 29, of Lake City (Craighead County), a passenger in a pickup truck driven by E. H. Southard, 41, of Caraway (Craighead County), was killed when the truck collided with a pickup driven by Mary Ann Rogers, 22, of Lake City, at the intersection of Arkansas 158 and a county road near Bay (Craighead County). Webb was thrown from the vehicle, which overturned on him. Neither Southard nor Mrs. Rogers was seriously injured.

Mary Sue Houser, 19, of Springdale, died at a Rogers hospital of injuries received earlier in the day when her car collided with one driven by Orville Hollingsworth, 31, of Elkins (Washington County), on U. S. 71 south of Rogers. A passenger in Miss Houser's vehicle, Lester Woods, 25, of Fayetteville, escaped serious injury.

Roy Eugene Harley, 37, of Corning, was fatally injured Friday when his car left Arkansas 135 near Gainesville (Greene County) and overturned, throwing him from the vehicle. He died at a Jonesboro hospital.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sharply divided House Commerce Committee is expected to approve President Johnson's proposal to head off a rail strike although many members don't like it.

One opponent of the proposal said comments made at the committee's first closed session on the proposal Thursday indicated a majority of the committee opposes the President's plan, but that a majority probably will vote to accept it.

Sources reported the administration had an 18 to 10 advantage in an initial test vote last Thursday.

Committee deliberations resume today after inability to muster enough members canceled plans for a session last Friday.

Leaders hope to bring the measure before the House Wednesday — a schedule that requires committee approval today and Rules Committee clearance Tuesday.

One week remains before the end of a current no strike - no lockout period. After that June 19 deadline the 137,000 shopcraft workers would be free to strike.

The Senate approved the President's proposal, with four minor amendments, last Wednesday.

Immunization Law Full of Exemptions

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The turmoil surrounding the 1967 act requiring immunization from whooping cough and several other diseases probably is much ado about nothing since the law specifies exemptions that could cover every student in Arkansas.

Parents and school officials may have become overly concerned when the attorney general's office said the law applied to all students shortly after the state Health Department advised the Education Department that the pertussis, or whooping cough, immunization could be detrimental to the health of persons six years of age or older.

The law prohibits admission to any public or private school of a child not immunized from poliomyelitis, diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis and red measles. Compliance with the law is the equal responsibility of the child's parents or guardians and the school districts.

The measure, authored by Rep. Gladys Martin Oglesby of Stamps, provides exemption on grounds of theology of a recognized church and when a health officer certifies that the vaccination would be inadvisable.

The state Health Department had nothing to do with the establishment of regulations in implementing the law but acted only as a consultant to the state Board of Education.

It was in the consulting phase that the education officials learned that the whooping cough shots could be harmful and brought about the request to the attorney general's office as to what students were involved.

Mrs. Marrie Armstrong, a registered nurse, will be the administrator of the extended-care facility, which will employ 55 persons when it opens about Jan. 15, Pugh said.

1,272nd Time and It Was Her Last

HOUSTON, TEX. (AP) — Carol Channing, her fellow performers and a good portion of their standing-room - only audience wept as she finished strutting and singing through the title role of "Hello, Dolly!" for the 1,272nd and last time.

Miss Channing left the show Sunday night after three years in which she never played to an empty seat and never missed a scheduled performance.

Her company of the smash musical grossed more than $17 million for producer David Merrick in 640 New York performances and a 29-city road tour.

After a brief rest, Miss Channing will turn to a series of ABC-TV specials.

WAS PETER PAN FIRST HIPPI?

Dear Helen: I am an open-minded cuss, and I've always thought Bohemians were fine and even somewhat productive — in Bohemia.

But these Hippies are something else! They're operating a gigantic "put-on" with the help of the press. If they weren't out after all the publicity they could get, how come TV cameramen always show up at "be-ins," "love-ins" etc. before the crowd does? There are several species:

1. Hip hippies are "work-drop-outs" who have shrewdly turned their laziness into a money maker. They book the tourists who flock to gawk at their weird communities, and each day they strive to make themselves look weirder, so that more tourists will flock.

2. "Hip-less" hippies, or camp followers, really believe what their leaders preach. Actually they're failures — unable to keep up with the world — so they live where failure is accepted and expected. The high-sounding business about "giving the world through love," and the "phoniness of the materialistic life," is their excuse for not having courage to face it. Between pot and acid, they've built up a lot of "love" — for drifting — not for people.

3. Week-end hippies, mostly teeny-boppers, window shop and sometimes get more than they bargained for. You'd call them and sometimes they run away from home to join Hippiland because they can't face the responsibility of growing up.

Hippies are different from the Bohemians that once made Greenwich Village alive — for Hippies don't produce much art, music, literature, they just exist. Without the buildup they've received from reporters, we'd call them by their rightful names — live-in hoboes. — CLOSE-IN OBSERVER

Dear Ovservr: You hit it right on the nose when you said Hippies are work — and life — drop-outs who can't face responsibility. They'd rather be perpetual children, like Peter Pan.

And come to think of it, Peter Pan was no doubt the original Hippie: he never grew up, he had hallucinations, and he flew out of the window on "trips." (Though he didn't splutter up the sidewalk below.) The gigantic Hippie "put-on" makes fascinating reading — and here lies the danger: Too many reporters unwittingly depict Hippie life as one long Peter Pan adventure. So too many young people in search of excuses for failure, get lost in "Potville" and "Psychodelphia" because they still believe in fairy tales.

BELIEVE IN FAIRY TALES. Dear Helen: I have recently discovered that I am pregnant. I have narrowed it down to two men, who are equally concerned. Should they share the expense? — MAD

Dear Mad: When they learn the facts, the only thing these two men will share is agreement they were fools. —H.

Dear Helen: One of my married brothers lives in the same block with our parents. His children are constantly at their house, eating, drinking pop, making messes and sometimes uproar. All this while the young parents are home relaxing.

My mother looks tired and worn, yet she'd never say anything, she's the type that would do anything for her family. The other married children say nothing, nor do I, but I'm sure we all feel our parents are being imposed upon. We keep our children away as much as possible because we know she is overworked with my brother's kids. This deprives them of those happy visits with Grandma and Grandpa that children love.

Should we all get together and say something — and to whom? — W.D.

Dear W: Most certainly you should tell your folks why the other grandchildren don't visit. They may be feeling snubbed, and wondering why.

Sometimes fond grandparents don't see impositions as others see them. If yours do, and are too "fond" to say so, a word about your mother's failing health might set this inconsiderate brother and sister — in — law straight. —M.

Next to the Ringling Bros. Circus, the Icecapades is now the largest touring show in America.

By DICK KLEINER
Hollywood Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — To put on an ice show, you have to do a little more than sharpen skates and freeze water. There's the matter of making that basketball-sized popcorn, for example.

Here in Hollywood is the headquarters — the studio, they call it — of the Icecapades. Next to the Ringling Bros. Circus, the Icecapades is now the largest touring show in America. All year long, this studio works to turn out the costumes and props and equipment for the next year's show.

It's a factory which has to be able to build anything that the producers dream up. Next year, for example, the show will feature a number involving king-sized popcorn, so studio manager Al Teaney got the job of making the stuff. He did, out of plastic.

He and his crew are also turning out other odds and ends. There is a fan, 16 feet tall and 32 feet wide, which opens and closes. There are 12-foot-tall candy jars, full of individually wrapped pieces of candy to match. There's a bunch of lollipops with three-foot diameters; all-year suckers, Teaney calls them.

There's a 16-foot-tall waterfall, which handles 180 gallons of water a minute. There's a glass fiber bubble, big enough to hold 436 gallons of water and a swimming girl. There's a model of the Golden Gate bridge 40 feet long.

And, for the finale, there will be a hydraulic platform on which a daring girl will zoom 17 feet into the air.

Biggest construction job of all is what Teaney calls the "stage set," a framework of tubing from which all the drapes and sets will be hung. All the tubes are painted different colors, so the construction crews in the various cities will know where to put which part. The whole thing can be put together in 1½ hours and be ready to use in six hours.

What makes this work more difficult is that it all has to be able to fold up. The Icecapades travels in a train — people plus equipment — and the sets and props must fit into trailers. These trailers are loaded and then they, in turn, are stowed inside baggage cars.

The ends of each of the four baggage cars have been cut out, making what Teaney calls "a four-car tunnel." The trailers are run through this tunnel until all 20 of them changes for the 100 skaters.

And the material can't be just any piece of yard goods. It has to have certain properties, to stand up against the cold of the ice and the heat generated in the shipping crates. The costumes have to be made with outsized hooks and zippers, so the skaters can change quickly.

There's one stern rule in the show. Nobody is allowed to smoke or drink anything while in costume. A burn or a stain could be disastrous. are in place. When the cars are packed, they can hook on to any passenger train for the next lap.

Teaney deals in big numbers—some 6,000 feet of tubing and "thousands and thousands of casters," on which the props roll on the ice—and so does Elizabeth Courtenay, in charge of costumes.

That girl in the finale on that 17-foot-high platform will be wearing a costume that has 1,600 yards of ostrich feathers—$3,000 worth of ostrich feathers. The costume boss estimates she'll use nearly 10,000 yards of material on next year's costumes—anywhere from five to 11

Fashion Tips

Matched for Summer

Because it leads such a versatile life, the costume makes many plans for a busy summer when done beautifully in cotton with important surface interest like a Jacquard or dotted effect. Sleeveless dresses come with matching jackets or full-length coats — take your choice. For dress-up occasions, what better choice than a crepe dress peeking through its own lace coat?

Prints Stress Stripes

Welcome, after several seasons of pastels, is the return of the patterned silk. Printed fabrics stress stripes, checks, plaids and florals. Black and white seem to be the favored color combinations, while brown and white is running a close second, followed by navy and white. Silhouettes are as varied as their colors. You can look for sleeveless, high-necked tents, slim, jewel-necked shifts or other styles that are belted or bloused.

Husband Fooler

Brides, always have the table set when your husband comes home from work. This makes him think things are on schedule, even if they are not.

ELIZABETH COURTENAY, in charge of costumes for Icecapades, puts the finishing touches on some king-sized popcorn, featured in the show.

Phillips Shows Life With Cubs

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Adolfo Phillips still takes his share of lumps, but the Chicago Cubs' Panama Flash has stopped running for his life — and started hitting back.

Phillips smashed four homers Sunday, driving in eight runs and leading the suddenly ferocious Cubs to a 5-3, 18-10 doubleheader sweep over the New York Mets.

The fleet outfielder, who set Cub records of 32 stolen bases and 135 strikeouts — and was plunked 12 times by pitchers for another club mark — last season, went down to steal home in the eighth inning of the opener.

But he bounced back in the nightcap, walloping three homers to vault into the National League's top five in both homers 11 and RBI 38.

While Phillips was landing Sunday punches against the Mets, Atlanta slugger Hank Aaron was on the run against San Francisco. Aaron collected four hits — including a pair of infield singles — and stole three bases before scoring the winning run from second on an infield error as the Braves edged the Giants 4-3 in 10 innings.

Cincinnati's league leaders dropped the first game of their doubleheader to Houston 7-4, then rebounded on Don Pavletich's grand slam homer for an 8-4 nightcap victory. St. Louis trimmed Los Angeles twice, 8-7 and 7-5, and Philadelphia buried Pittsburgh 14-1 in a single game.

In the American League, Chicago swept New York 2-1 and 3-2; Cleveland took a pair from Kansas City, 12-1 and 3-2; Washington edged Boston 8-7 after losing the opener 4-3; Baltimore taking the nightcap 10-7 and California beat Detroit 6-4.

Phillips, who started his power spree with a bases-empty homer in the second inning of the opener, tried to duplicate Ted Savage's steal of home in the eighth but was tagged — on the chin — by Mets catcher Bob Taylor. Adolfo lay on the ground for several minutes while the Cubs' trainer waved smelling salts under his nose.

Not long afterward, however, Phillips was back in the swing and his fans in the Wrigley Field bleachers were chanting "Ole Adolfo" again. His suc-

Jerry Perry Gives Twins Some Relief

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Jim Perry provided the Minnesota Twins with relief in more ways than one and then went home in an effort to get some for himself.

Perry, suffering from a sore throat and fever, entered the second game of a doubleheader Sunday in the third inning. He left after the sixth inning and went home.

In between his arrival and departure, the veteran right-hander was tough on Baltimore batters, hit a two-run homer and singled in another run as the Twins won 10-7 after losing the opener 5-2.

While the Twins and Orioles were splitting, the Chicago White Sox moved into first place in the American League by a game over Detroit. The White Sox scored 2-1 and — 2 victories over the New York Yankees. Detroit lost to California 6-4.

Cleveland beat Kansas City 12-1 and 3-2 and Boston split with Washington, winning 4-3 before losing 8-7 in other AL games.

In the National League the Chicago Cubs whipped the New York Mets 5-3 and 18-10. St. Louis topped Los Angeles 4-3 and 7-5. Philadelphia trounced Pittsburgh 14-1. Atlanta edged San Francisco 4-3 in 10 innings and Houston split with Cincinnati, winning 7-4 before bowing 8-4.

Perry now 2-4, relieved Jim "Mudcat" Grant in the third inning with two runs in and a man on third. He gave up a run scoring single and then got the next two men to end the inning.

Minnesota tied the game at 4-4 in the fifth when Ted Uhlaender singled and Perry hit his first homer and won the game in the sixth with four runs.

Singles by Tony Oliva and Bob Allison and a walk to Rich Rollins loaded the bases. Then after a force out at home, Russ Nixon tripled and Perry singled.

The six-hit pitching of Bill Dillman and Curt Blefary's two-run homer in the fifth inning, which broke a 2-2 tie, gave Baltimore its first game victory.

Wayne Causey's RBI single in the fourth inning broke a 1-1 tie in the first game and Gerry McNertney hit a three-run homer in the fourth of the nightcap for Chicago's sweep.

Bruce Howard held the Yankees hitless in the second game until Joe Pepitone singled in the seventh. Howard needed relief help in the ninth inning when Ruben Amaro doubled and Jake Gibbs homered.

The Yankees tied the first game on singles by Horace Clark, Amaro and Micky Mantle. The White Sox had scored in the first on Walt Williams' double and Don Buford's single.

Mantle's pinch hit appearance in the second game tied him with Lou Gehrig for most games played by a Yankee 2,164. A Bat Day crowd of 62,582, largest in the majors since 1965, watched the games.

Baptist Revival Successful

First Baptist Church of Hope brought to a conclusion last night one of its most successful revival campaigns—the week-long crusade by Evangelist Angel Martinez, dynamic speaker endowed with the capacity to draw large crowds night after night.

The one-time San Antonio shoe-shine boy, lured to a Baptist mission on the promise of ice cream, converted and preached his first sermon at the age of 13, spoke Sunday morning on "The Old Rugged Cross," and Sunday night on "Settle Your Case Out of Court."

There were some 70 decisions for Christ Sunday, bringing the total for the week to near the 300 mark, many of them rededications, transfer of letters and public acceptance of Christ.

There was a sentimental moment when the evangelist made his final appeal to "Settle Your Case Out of Court," pointing out that every man must either face God as Savior—or face him as Judge, and the issue for the unsaved man will be "Why Did You Reject Christ?"

He went on to say that the massive and conclusive evidence will be overwhelming when the confrontation comes, stressing again and again that salvation is a free gift, and that man has no valid reason to refuse this gift.

"The same God who died on the cross will face you. His decision will be final. There is no appeal to a higher court. God knows all about you, your secrets, your successes, your failures, whether you are a college graduate or a moron, rich or poor—it makes no difference. You cannot elude the confrontation with God. . . so settle your case out of court—now."

The urgency of the final appeal brought 57 persons from their seats, all responding to the invitation.

As the campaign ended there were mixed emotions of sorrow and joy as the new scholarly, polished and impeccably dressed Mr. Martinez brought the series of sermon classics to an end—sorrow for those who rejected Christ, joy for those who accepted him.

Vance Named Deputy Secy. of Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze is President Johnson's announced choice for deputy secretary of defense to succeed the resigning Cyrus R. Vance.

The new secretary of the Navy, making the same job shift Nitze did 3 years ago will be John T. McNaughton, now assistant secretary of defense for international security affairs. Paul C. Warnke, now the Defense Department's general counsel, will succeed McNaughton.

President Johnson announced the shifts Saturday night in what is not indicated as any policy change.

The White House said Vance 50, was resigning effective June 30 for personal reasons. He has been bothered with back trouble.

Dodd Censure Is Back in the Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate debates this week whether to censure Sen. Thomas J. Dodd for alleged financial misconduct.

The Connecticut Democrat's only announced ally in fighting the censure resolution is Sen. Russell B. Long D. - La., who contends the Senate ethics committee, which recommended censure, is making a scapegoat of Dodd.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits R-N.Y., said Sunday Dodd has a legitimate complaint in saying the Senate does not have an official code of ethics by which to judge him. Javits did not, however, say how he would vote.

Long plans to propose after the debate opens Tuesday that the Senate discard the censure resolution altogether and instead ask the ethics committee to draft an ethics code. He disclosed Saturday he has sent to all senators a legal brief contending the ethics committee's investigation of Dodd doesn't support its resolution.

The six member committee - three Democrats and three Republicans - unanimously recommended censure.

Father of 10 Gets Degree

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — Joseph G. Ebel, 40, father of 10, gets a doctor of philosophy degree today from Cornell University.

Ebel has been going to college off and on since 1951. In 1963, he earned a degree in agriculture and decided to try for his doctorate. He worked as a construction laborer and farmer.

The children of Ebel and his wife, Donna, range in age from 3 to 15.

The family lived in his native Arcade, N.Y., nearer to Buffalo than to Cornell, until 1962, when they moved to Newfield, a community south of Ithaca.

Despite his success at Cornell, Ebel feels that "my biggest dilemma is right now—what job?"

Among other things, he is considering a career in the academic world: "I really enjoy working with students."

THE WELL CHILD

Stomach Position Best For Tiny Sleeping Infant

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

I am often asked whether an infant should be allowed to sleep on his stomach all the time. This is the preferred position for an infant because, if he spits up any of his food, he will not in this position be likely to inhale it and have a fit of choking.

Furthermore, an infant in this position even from birth is able to lift his head and turn it from side to side thereby avoiding any obstruction to his breathing that might be caused by a bunched-up blanket. Babies who are placed on their backs may develop a flattened area on the back of the head.

You should, however, let your baby lie on his back when he is awake and you can be with him. When he is old enough to turn over from his stomach to his back he will choose the sleeping position that suits him and will change his position from time to time unaided during his sleep.

Q—Is powdered milk just as nutritious as regular milk for children? Ours get vitamin supplements daily. Would there be any advantage to using one-half regular and one-half powdered milk?

A—Powdered milk is just as nutritious as whole milk. Once the package is opened, however, it should be kept in the refrigerator. If your children are used to the slightly different taste of powdered milk there would be no advantage in mixing it with whole milk.

Q—What is the cause of Pick's disease? What are the symptoms? Can it be cured?

D.C.'s Famous Buildings

Seen from the window of an airplane, most cities look pretty much the same, except Washington, D.C. The difference lies in unique structures, some of them outstanding examples of architecture. The nation's capital doesn't claim to rival New York's skyline, but a wealth of interesting monuments and buildings make it a special place to visit.

From the air, the White House looks much smaller than it really is.

If Snoring Keeps the Wife Awake, May Be You Are Just Too Fat

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:
If your snoring keeps your wife awake, it may be simply because you're too fat. Other causes of snoring as reported by the American Medical Association: allergies, too much smoking, sinus condition, and general poor health.

Unless men learn how to live longer, it's estimated there'll be 10 million U.S. widows by the end of 1975, but only one-fifth that many widowers. On the average, a 20-year-old girl will outlive her husband by eight years.

Tiny Israel, which has a population of only 2,650,000, is one of the most conglomerate countries on earth. In the last 19 years it has drawn a million immigrants from nearly 100 other lands.

Scientists say 12,000 people a day die of starvation or malnutrition disease throughout the world—but the number of people alive on the earth is increasing by 7,000 an hour.

Quotable notables: "Education is the ability to listen to almost anything without losing your temper or your self-confidence."—Robert Frost.

Folklore: If you see a falling star before it disappears, you'll become wealthy. Touching second base every time he comes on and off the field will bring good luck to a baseball player. A mixture of ground beans and bedbugs—ugh!—will cure chills or fever. Cages a robin in your home and you'll have bad luck.

U.S. farming methods are so efficient that food production has doubled since the end of World War II, although the area of tilled land has declined by about 60 million acres.

Women don't have to be behind the wheel to cause traffic accidents. Investigating 96 drivers involved in mishaps, a Michigan psychiatrist found 20 per cent had been emotionally disturbed just prior to the crashes. Most of the drivers, he said, "had had violent quarrels, for the most part with women."

Worth remembering: "Fidelity is something nice someone tells you about yourself that you wish was true."

There's such an acute shortage of nurses—the 815,000 registered, only 283,000 are professionally active—that efforts are being made to get more men to enter the field. At present only 1.8 per cent of students are male.

On Tuesday, June 6, a slide series—"Birth, Boyhood, and Baptism of Jesus" was presented to the group by Mrs. F. S. Smith and daughter. Everyone enjoyed this presentation and the request was made to present it again so that others might also benefit.

Smith, and Rev. T. J. Rhone. Refreshments were served after the viewing of the many beautiful exhibits. It was generally felt that the VBS week had been quite successful.

Open Space Myth

Because America has always had such a seeming supply of land, there are many persons not aware of a rapid decline in arable space and the urgency of better planning for land use.

Withdrawal of land for highways continues to reduce land resources yearly. In 1900 each American had the equivalent of 25 acres of land. By airports, industries and recreation in 1950 this was reduced to 12½ acres. Last year there was slightly more than nine acres of land per capita. The decrease within 37 years will see only six acres per person.

A people intelligent enough to create a living standard such as we have should be smart enough to improve land use before the situation gets so critical that government does it for them. Oklahoma City (Okla.) Daily Oklahoman.

Moral Issues And War TV

The wonders of modern science have wrought another first-viewing a war from your living room almost as it happens. And with hand-held mobile television units and communication satellites promising live coverage in the near future, the inevitable has already occurred. A Georgia couple watching a news broadcast saw their son step on a land mine, so plainly, as his mother put it, "I could almost touch him."

Fortunately, this episode appears to have a happy ending. The young GI expects to recover fully from his leg and abdominal wounds.

It is reasonable to assume that if live war actually comes to the home screen, more of the same can be expected, and much, much worse. With no time for editing, what of the strategically placed hand grenade, the sniper's bullet coming off cue, the booby trap swinging down from a hut roof and impaling Cousin Richard waist-high while he is on-camera?

Live television coverage aside, is a moral issue involved in graphic coverage of the war even as it now stands? Are we chancing unnecessary torment to the families of the combat soldiers? It was two days after seeing the explosion envelop their loved one before the Georgia couple and the young GI's wife learned that he was still alive.

Is it indelicate for someone to lounge near the air conditioner sipping a Scotch and soda while watching their young countrymen face death in a Far Eastern jungles? On the other hand, is there not some benefit in having the horrors of a remote war brought home for complacent countrymen to see, uncensored?

The eagerness of a sheltered society to view all aspects of life will probably demand the realism continue. But questions arise as, trapped by our own genius and curiosity, we plunge toward authenticity in its most graphic forms. Stillwater (Okla.) News-Press

RULINGS BY U.S. SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court upheld today the contempt of court convictions of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and seven other Negro leaders of desegregation demonstrations in Birmingham, Ala., in 1963.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court upheld today a $460,000 libel judgment won by Wallace Butts, former athletic director at the University of Georgia, against Curtis Publishing Co.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today barred Virginia — and by implication other states — from making interracial marriage a crime. ## Flag Week Is June 12 to the 17

On June 9, 1966, President Johnson signed into law House Joint Resolution 763 and issued the first proclamation designating the week in which June 14 falls as National Flag week. June 14 is the 190th anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as our National Emblem. Flag Day is being observed by all members of The Daughters of the American Revolution and they ask that you observe this week by displaying your American Flag at your home and businesses.

It is good to pause these days and consider the price that has been paid and is now being paid on foreign soil to keep aloft this great banner and to rededicate ourselves to the truth it proclaims: That all men are endowed with certain unalienable rights, . . . that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Carmichael Arrested, Alabama Riot Brings Out National Guard

By REX THOMAS
PRATTVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The arrest of Stokely Carmichael, black power advocate, touched off a gun battle Sunday between police and Negroes. National Guardsmen moved in early today with orders to shoot to kill, if necessary to restore order.

The guardsmen and police raided a house involved in the gunfire and removed some 30 Negroes and a double-barreled shotgun. Several rounds of ammunition were found in a car parked outside, Sheriff Phillip Wood said.

The troops and civilian officers, numbering more than 150, met no resistance when they moved in after a nightlong vigil. Seven Negroes were taken into custody for questioning. The others were told to go home.

The gun battle left three law enforcement officers slightly injured. Three patrol cars were damaged by shotgun pellets. The violence came after Carmichael was arrested Sunday on a disorderly conduct charge.

Police Chief Obie Thompson said Carmichael threatened to kill one officer and told police he would "tear up this town." Carmichael remained in jail overnight. The sheriff said he would be eligible for bond. The National Guard troops

Tetanus Claims Six in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The six persons in Arkansas who contracted tetanus last year died, according to a state Health Department report on communicable diseases released Saturday.

The report said the number of tetanus cases and typhoid fever cases declined from 1965 to 1966. There were three cases of malaria reported last year, compared to one in 1965. Only one polio case was reported in 1966.

were ordered to Prattville after a gun battle of more than three hours between Negroes and police. One of the Negroes in the house told officers he "got trapped in there and couldn't get out." He said he had just left a church across the street when he heard shooting and ducked into the house for safety.

The gunfire erupted, Wood said, after Assistant Police Chief Kenneth Hill narrowly escaped injury from a bullet which tore through the window of his squad car as he drove through the Negro residential area.

Hill ducked and lost control of his car, sending it into a curb and knocking him unconscious when his head struck the interior of the car. He recovered quickly and was back on duty after a physician at Prattville General Hospital found no evidence of serious injury.

Also treated at the hospital for superficial shotgun wounds were city policeman Norris Chamption and Johnson County Sheriff's Deputy John Griffin.

Chief Thompson said the officers went to the Negro First Baptist church and found Carmichael and a group of Negroes outside after a Montgomery resident complained he had been threatened with a shotgun as he drove past the church.

One Dead in Negro Riots in Tampa

By DON NORTH
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A mob of 400 Negroes, spurred to violence when a policeman shot a Negro youth, went on a rampage in two slum areas today. They beat whites and sacked and burned an entire block of white-owned stores.

At least a dozen persons, including 10 whites, were injured. A deputy sheriff died of an apparent heart attack during the wild melee.

Armed with guns stolen from a smashed pawnshop, the Negroes exchanged shots with police, hurled bricks through automobile windows and went on a wild looting spree.

At daybreak, the shooting had ceased and the fires had been extinguished. Smoke from fire-gutted buildings curled over a dingy area of bars, liquor stores, pool halls and one-story business houses.

Deputy Chief A.H. Walwright said the riot erupted in the middle of a muggy night at Nebraska Ave. and Twigg St. when a 19-year-old youth was shot and killed as he ran from a patrolman.

The officer said he shot after spotting the youth and two others running from the scene of a burglary.

Robert Gilder, 36, president of the Tampa NAACP chapter, said word that the youth had been shot in the back spread rapidly through a Negro district he called a "ghetto first class."

During the height of the rioting a mile-square section of Tampa was a no-man's land. Snipers shot at police and firemen with ammunition looted from a gun store in the area.

Other Negroes hurled rocks at riot police who were illuminated by fires which left the area "bright as day."

Deputy Fire Chief Charles Wells said none of his men was injured. He said more than 100 firefighters were used to control the flames which caused an estimated $250,000 in damages to two homes, two warehouses and two shopping complexes.

More than a dozen persons were injured during the melee, including one Negro youth who suffered a gunshot wound. Aides at Tampa General Hospital said he was in good condition.

A white deputy sheriff, Sgt. Don Williams, died of an apparent heart attack. Negroes fought police with guns and ammunition looted from a gun store in the area.

Israel Denies Charge by Syria, Intends to Keep Land Gained UN Bans All Movement of Armies

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council early today banned any forward military movements by Israel or Syrian forces and called for a rollback of any that may have taken place since the cease-fire between them was supposed to become effective at 12:30 p.m. EDT Saturday.

The 15-nation council acted unanimously at an overnight emergency meeting on Syrian charges that an Israeli armored column had advanced inside Syria in a drive to capture the Yarmuk River feeding the Jordan. Israel denied the charge.

The resolution was the fourth the council has adopted since Israel, Egypt, Jordan and Syria locked in war last Monday.

It called for full cooperation with Norwegian Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, head of the U.N. Truce Supervision Organization for Palestine, in implementing the cease-fire, "including freedom of movement and adequate communications facilities."

That provision was taken to mean Israel should give Bull back his headquarters south of Jerusalem which fell to Jordanian troops and then to Israeli troops.

Syrian Ambassador George J. Tomeh telephoned Council President Hans R. Tabor of Denmark at 5 p.m. Sunday and asked for "an urgent emergency meeting." He said he had word from Damascus that "a column of Israeli armored cars and tanks supported by military helicopters and other forces" had moved eastward and southward from Rafid.

Tomeh said Israeli paratroops had occupied Rafid Saturday three hours and 17 minutes after the cease-fire was supposed to have gone into effect. That was the time Bull got a complaint of the paratroop action from a Syrian official.

The meeting started just before 11 p.m. and Secretary-General U Thant read a message from Bull saying U.N. observers had reported that near Joudaka village, below Rafid, a column of Israeli tanks had headed east and then south.

Israeli Ambassador Gideon Rafael conceded there had been "a movement of some military vehicles but this movement took place within the truce lines established by the cease-fire."

During a recess in the meeting, Tabor worked out the resolution from a draft produced by the big powers and India and cleared later with the other members.

The resolution "condemns any and all violations of the cease-fire" and affirms that the council's demand for a "cease-fire and discontinuance of all military activities

10 Enemy Planes Are Destroyed

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP)—U.S. pilots during the weekend destroyed or damaged 10 MIG jets on the ground at and near the Kep air base northeast of Hanoi, the U.S. Air Force reported today.

The claim brought the number of Red MIGs claimed destroyed or damaged in aerial dogfights or on the ground to about 115, or just about the size of the North Vietnamese air force in February 1965 when the United States began bombing North Vietnam.

U.S. officers say the Soviet Union is providing replacement planes to maintain Hanoi's air force at about 100 combat jets.

North Vietnamese ground force brought down four U.S. planes over the weekend, raising the number of U.S. combat planes reported lost in the air war in North Vietnam to 581. Three of the crewmen were rescued and two were missing.

The Air Force said six MIGs were destroyed or damaged on the ground Saturday during raids on anti-aircraft sites around the Kep railroad yards 38 miles northeast of Hanoi.

The Communist jet interceptors were parked in protective revetments close to the anti-aircraft sites and two miles north of the Kep jet air base. Then the air field was hit Sunday by U.S. Navy planes and pilots claimed two MIGs destroyed on the ground and two damaged or destroyed.

The raid Sunday was the eighth on the Kep base, which U.S. planes first attacked April 24.

Since the raids on Kep began, the Communists have dispersed the MIGs in extensive revetments away from the field.

One lone flight of MIGs made a firing pass at the raiders Sunday but then fled. Military spokesmen say U.S. pilots have downed 77 MIGs in aerial dogfights and scored nine more probable.

Israel Lists Casualties at 679 Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Israel has denied Syrian charges that its tanks invaded deeper into Syria after a cease-fire but says it intends to keep some of the land it won from Syria, Egypt and Jordan in the six-day Middle East war.

Cheering crowds in the Israeli port of Eilat Sunday night greeted the first Israeli freighter to enter the Gulf of Aqaba since Egypt's proclaimed blockade of the gulf led the Middle East to the brink of war.

The Jewish nation had assured reopening of the gulf by capturing Sharm el Sheikh, from which Egyptian guns overlooked the gulf entrance at the Strait of Tiran.

An Israeli army spokesman said the war against the Arabs killed 679 Israeli soldiers and wounded 2,563. Jordan has announced that 15,000 Jordanians were killed. Egypt and Syria have not announced any casualty figures.

Estimates of the number of prisoners taken by Israel, mostly Egyptian, range from 13,000 to 15,000. They still are being counted.

The U.N. Security Council, meeting past 2:30 a.m. for the second straight day, adopted a new resolution demanding that Israel and Syria avoid any forward movement of troops and withdraw any units that have crossed cease-fire lines established Saturday.

Syria said Israel moved armored units forward Sunday. Israel said its tank movements were entirely behind the cease-fire lines. U.N. truce observers confirmed movement of tanks in the area.

Israeli troops now occupy Egypt's Sinai Peninsula, the biblical cities in Jordan west of the Jordan River and a 25-mile strip from which extends as deep as 15 miles into Syrian territory. Foreign Minister Abba Eban told a public meeting Sunday night that Israel would not return to the armistice lines of 1949. For the first time, he said, Israel's Galilee settlements were out of danger from Syrian guns on high ground overlooking them.

Former Premier David Ben-Gurion urged the Jews to resettle the Old City of Jerusalem immediately as well as some other communities captured from Jordan.

The Jerusalem Post, which often reflects Foreign Ministry views, said: "The 1949 armistice agreements and their armistice demarcation lines are no longer recognized by Israel, having been invalidated by Egyptian, Syrian and Jordanian aggression."

Diplomats at the United Nations said they expect the Soviet Union to step up its diplomatic drive to force Israel to pull out of Arab territory. There was no indication what the United States would do.

The Jerusalem Post, which often reflects Foreign Ministry views, said: "The 1949 armistice agreements and their armistice demarcation lines are no longer recognized by Israel, having been invalidated by Egyptian, Syrian and Jordanian aggression."
